LO drawer unit

Product information sheet

Product range

It's ideal when additional storage, efficient use of space and aesthetic design go hand in hand in the office – and LO drawer units combine all three. With levelling screws or castors. With and without a stationery drawer (compatible with LO Extend). With soft-close mechanisms and interlocking systems. With numerous partition options to enable individual organisation. And with an interior in refined black with an optional lock mechanism to prevent unauthorised access.

Organisation

LO

Material trays, horizontal dividers, hanging files: these and other organisational elements help make your office storage system clear and straightforward. The new LO drawer unit works in harmony with LO One to keep things perfectly organised: the magnetic modules from the two systems are fully compatible. The result: everything is neat and tidy, and you have unrestricted access to stationery and files throughout the office.
