Product information sheet

LO Education

Education, whether for children or adults, as an institution is subject to social change. Classroom lecture-style teaching has given way to independent thinking, individual creativity and communication with one another.

New, different forms of teaching require flexible furnishing of rooms: LO Education brings dynamism, functionality and efficiency to the modern learning landscape with well thought-out room and furniture concepts. The LO Education range includes the LO Edge and LO Solo desk systems as well as the partition wall system LO Move.

LO Edge - Desk System

Intelligent design and goal-oriented functionality. The magnetic Click & Meet panel connection turns this table system into a convertible creative zone. Individual freedom of design and coordinated accessories allow ideal activation of the creativity centre of each individual user. The desks can be used universally as individual or group tables. Thanks to externally placed table legs, LO Edge offers maximum legroom. The accompanying castors are suitable for hard or soft floors.

LO Solo - Individual Desk

Physical activity in daily life is important and a prerequisite for both health and vitality. The height-adjustable and compact individual desks allow both presenter and listener to be actively engaged with both body and mind. The LO Solo can be playfully organised with an optional tray holder and felt tray. The soft felt material not only feels pleasant, but also protects the stowed utensils at the same time. For a little privacy or individual work, the desk can also be equipped with an optional privacy screen on the 3rd level or a legroom screen for under the desk. It also offers maximum legroom thanks to the slim design of the feet. LO Solo is an ergonomic desk with variable height adjustment without electricity. LO Solo is easy to move due to two castors at the back. The feet can also be height-adjusted at the front.

Organisation

LO

No order without a system. An organisation system is available for both LO Edge and LO Solo ranges to keep things in order. The felt tray is 3 pieces, made of anthracite/light grey formfleece and intended for storage and organisation under the desk. The 3-piece felt tray is completely insertable at the holder for felt tray of LO Solo. With LO Edge, only the small 2-piece felt tray can be inserted in the chair holder and the large tray remains in the storage space because of the legroom.
